Alumni News of SRUSTI ACADEMY of MANAGEMENT (Autonomous), Bhubaneswar, Odisha

Vol - XV | Issue - II | May - Aug. 2024

Welcome to the 15th edition of the 2nd issue of Srusti's Alumni Express! This edition is dedicated to celebrating both our profound love for our country and our passion for sports.

As we commemorate the 78th Independence Day and mark the 25th anniversary of the Kargil conflict, we are filled with immense pride and joy, not only for our nation's journey but also for its remarkable achievements on the global stage. This year, our celebration is further enriched by India's extraordinary performance at the Paris Olympics. The echoes of the Paris Olympics are still reverberating, carrying with them a symphony of triumph and promise. The historic triumphs in shooting and the resurgence in hockey symbolize a new era of sporting excellence and national pride.

It is a testament to the nation's burgeoning sporting prowess and a clarion call for a sustained push. This performance not only fills us with pride but also instils a sense of optimism for the future of Indian sports.

The journey from being mere participants to serious medal contenders has been arduous. Years of dedicated effort and a growing emphasis on sports infrastructure and talent identification have laid the foundation for this surge. Yet, the road ahead is equally challenging. India must invest strategically and sustainably to transform these sporadic bursts of glory into a consistent medal haul. The urgency and importance of this sustained investment cannot be overstated.

Grassroots development remains the cornerstone. Identifying and nurturing raw talent from the hinterlands is imperative. It is here that champions are forged. Simultaneously, providing world-class training facilities, sports science support, and psychological conditioning is essential to bridge the gap between potential and performance.

The Paris Olympics has ignited a spark, a belief in India's sporting capabilities. The nation is now incumbent upon to fan this flame into a roaring fire. By creating an ecosystem that nurtures sporting excellence, India can dream of more Olympic medals and inspire generations to come. This dream, however, cannot be realized without the support and investment of the public. It is time for every Indian to contribute to this journey of sporting excellence.

The time for complacency is past. The time for sustained action is now.

President Message

Grit and Glory: The Olympic Stories of Bhaker and Phogat

"Success is not final, failure is not fatal: It is the courage to continue that count."

- Winston Churchill

The extraordinary journeys of two of India's most determined athletes stand as powerful testaments to what can be accomplished through dedication, resilience, and an unyielding spirit. Emerging from humble beginnings, they have confronted and conquered numerous challenges, their relentless pursuit of excellence and unwavering determination catapulting them to the heights of international acclaim. These are stories not just of sporting triumphs but of the human spirit's boundless capacity to dream, to overcome, and to inspire. Their journeys remind us that true greatness is forged in victory, the courage to persist, and the strength to rise after every fall.

Manu Bhakar, a rising star in the world of pistol shooting, discovered her passion early on in Jhajjar, Haryana. Her dedication and hard work, bolstered by the unwavering support of her family and mentor, quickly propelled her onto the global stage. At the Paris 2024 Olympics, she etched her name in history by becoming the first Indian to secure two medals in a single edition of the Games. Manu's story is a shining example of what perseverance, bolstered by family support and mentorship, can achieve. Her success has become a beacon of inspiration for young athletes across India, encouraging them to pursue their dreams with determination and courage.

In parallel, the journey of another athlete from Haryana has captivated the nation. Vinesh Phogat, from the renowned Phogat wrestling family in Balali, faced societal norms discouraging women from participating in sports and immense challenges such as lack of resources and facilities head-on. Trained under the watchful eye of her uncle, Mahavir Singh Phogat, she climbed the ranks of wrestling with sheer grit and determination. However, her path was not without setbacks. At the Paris 2024 Olympics, Vinesh faced a heartbreaking disqualification for being just 100 grams overweight. Yet, true to her resilient nature, she appealed the decision, demonstrating her determination to fight for justice. Vinesh's journey serves as a poignant reminder that setbacks are not the end but stepping stones to greater strength and growth.

The stories of Manu Bhakar and Vinesh Phogat transcend their respective sports, symbolizing the triumph of the human spirit. Their lives exemplify that success is not solely about winning medals but about daring to dream, confronting challenges with bravery, and rising stronger after every fall. These athletes are more than champions; they are role models, inspiring young women to break barriers, challenge societal norms, and pursue their passions with unwavering resolve. Their journeys continue to ignite hope and motivation, lighting the way for the next generation of trailblazers and shaping the future of pistol shooting and wrestling in India.

Principal's Message

Dear Readers.

At the outset, I express my immense pleasure as we are going to publish the next edition of Alumni e-Xpress to share some more information about us to our esteemed readers. As a professional institute, we are committed to produce next age professionals who will be responsible citizen of this country. In this context I want to take a moment to reflect on a crucial aspect of our community's future: sustainability. In a world where environmental challenges are increasingly urgent, it is our responsibility to cultivate a culture of sustainable development within our institute.

Sustainability is not just a buzzword; it is a fundamental principle that guides how we interact with our environment and with each other. It involves making thoughtful decisions that protect our natural resources, reduce waste, and promote a healthier planet. In our institute, we are committed to integrate these principles into our daily lives and academic pursuits.

We are taking constant efforts to minimize single-use plastics and other non-recyclables. We are implementing energy-saving measures, including the use of LED lighting and encouraging the responsible use of electricity. Every small action counts, and together we can make a significant impact.

By fostering a culture of sustainability, we are not only protecting our planet but also instilling values in our students that will serve them throughout their lives. It is a collective effort that requires the commitment of each one of us—students, parents, teachers, and staff alike.

Let's make this year a turning point in our journey toward a more sustainable future. Thank you for your continued support and dedication to this vital cause.

Warm regards,

Prof. (Dr.) Umakanta Dash

Principal
